

Fellesforbundet

Good conditions in the Barracks?

Regulations for hut units used in the building industry

Illustration: Hallvard Skauge

What does the THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT FOR THE BUILDING INDUSTRY (FOB) say about the demands for hut units used for changing clothes, washing up and lunch breaks?

Lunch room:

1,2 m² dining area pr. person.
Kitchenette, refrigerator and washing-up sink

Washrooms:

Shower, WC, hot and cold running water
(separate women's and men's facilities)

Changing Rooms:

Lockable compartment for valuables
Lockers for day clothes, as well as an open space for dirty clothes
Facility for drying wet clothes and footwear
Separate women's and men's changing rooms

All mobile and stationary huts shall be heated

It is the employers responsibility that the hut units are clean and kept in a good shape.
All users of the facilities must contribute to keep it in good order!

For the full and detailed regulations, look up appendix 18 in THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT FOR THE BUILDING INDUSTRY (FOB), (Fellesoverenskomsten for byggfag)

www.fellesforbundet.no/tariffavtaler/fellesoverenskomsten-for-byggfag/

NB! There are different regulations for living quarters and hut units not used as accommodation (dagrigg).

In doubt if the conditions in your hut unit are according to the rules? Get in touch with your Shop Steward, the Safety Representative or your local department of Fellesforbundet

An overview of the departments of Fellesforbundet are listed here: www.fellesforbundet.no

Not a member? Sign up here:

www.fellesforbundet.no/bli-medlem/